

CUB SCOUTS OF AMERICA, HONG KONG PACK 1
Behavior Statement
2011-2012 School Year

Cub Scout Behavior Contract

Part of being a Cub Scout is to show respect for others. We can show respect to others by listening when it is their turn to speak, raising our hand when we have something to share and obeying the adult in charge.

The following is an agreement between the Cub Scout, his parent and the leader of the den to show respect for one another. It is important to remember that Cub Scouts are enthusiastic six to eleven year old boys. Parents, please use common sense as your guide to help the scouts learn what is expected of them.

If there is a behavior problem, the Cub Scout will receive a warning. The second time this behavior happens, the Cub Scout will be put in "Time-Out" for five minutes and the parents will be notified. The third time the same problem behavior happens, the Cub Scout will miss the next meeting and the parent will be notified.

I, _____, promise to do my best at the Den and Pack meetings and Cub Scout Activities. I will obey my Den Leaders and show respect to them and the other members of my Den and Pack. I will try to be helpful by doing things that would please them. I have read and had my parents read the behavior expectations above.
